

Navigating your “My UNC Charlotte” Account & Tips for Class Registration

My UNC Charlotte

What is it?

- “My UNC Charlotte”= a collection of accounts accessible with one set of credentials: your NinerNET username and password
 - These credentials are obtainable as soon as 24 hours after admission, using your name, Date of Birth, and Student ID number (sent with notification of admission)

“My UNC Charlotte” Account

What does it do?

- You can use several accounts and utilities from your My UNC Charlotte Account. Some are online, accessible through “My UNC Charlotte”, and some are linked to your Student ID card.

Canvas

- Canvas is the web portal that you will access for all course information, assignments and grades.
- It can be accessed through banner self service or <http://canvas.uncc.edu/>

Nothing for the next week

WELCOME TO HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY!!!

This course will provide an overview of the major psychological theories, principles, and concepts of health psychology. Health psychology examines how biological, social, and psychological factors influence health and illness. We will also explore how determinants such as individual behaviors and lifestyles, social environments, health systems, and health policy promote or inhibit the spread of the disease.

Learning Objectives: Given the mastery of the course readings, lectures, discussions, and exams, students should be able to:

1. Recognize the field of health psychology as an interdisciplinary, scientific, and applied field
2. Explain how biological, social, and psychological factors interact and influence health
3. Describe how health psychology can be applied to prevent illness and promote health
4. Develop a behavior change intervention
